get up ear-ly in the morn-in', Gon-na swing on the gol-den gate!

The musical score is written on two staves in 4/4 time. The first staff contains the first four measures of the melody, with lyrics and movement instructions above it. The second staff contains the next four measures, starting with a measure rest for five measures (indicated by the number 5), followed by the final two measures. The lyrics continue below the second staff.
